MC999 Listing policy violation alert: Trademark Violation - Unauthorized Item

Hello jjleo0205,

After reviewing your eBay account, it appears that you have violated eBay's Trademark Violation - Unauthorized Item policy. We realize you may not have been aware of this policy, or that this may have been a simple oversight, but unfortunately, we had to take the following actions on your account:

- Violating listings have been removed. A list of items that were removed can be viewed at the bottom of this message.
- We have credited any associated fees to your account.

Your listing was removed after the rights owner notified us that your item infringes on their trademark rights. We urge you to contact the rights owner directly for more information about why they requested the removal of your listing and whether you may relist the item.

For more information on our VeRO program, go to:
<http://pages.ebay.com/help/sell/trademark.html>

Please be sure your current and future listings follow these guidelines, keeping in mind that additional violations of this policy could result in the suspension of your account.

We encourage you to contact Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences directly if you have any questions.

You can send an email to:
smiller@oscars.org

For more information on how eBay protects Intellectual Property, or for additional information if you believe that your listing has been removed as a result of an error or misidentification, please visit the following Help page:
<http://pages.ebay.com/help/policies/programs-vero-ov.html>
